Titanic is a movie about going back to ones roots, closure and true love. It begins with the discovery of the sunken Titanic and one elderly woman's story of her early life. Her name was Rose and she was on the ship. She was travelling with her mother to the america's and was to marry someone she did not love. While on the ship she did however find the love of her life. She found him when he saved her from killing herself by jumping ship. His name was Jack, however he was not the type of person Rose's mother approved of. He was poor. So Rose and Jack went sneaking around together and fell in love. Rose's fiance however did not like that behaviour and framed Jack for stealing. That is when the iceberg hit.
